

Forgiven

Ben Harper & The Innocent Criminals

I will wait like nothing; I have ever waited for
I will catch your tears from falling; until from my hands they pour
I will catch your tears from falling; until from my hands they pour
You can leave me abandoned, I'll be here if you walk back in

Like the rest I have been branded far beneath the skin
So far beneath the skin
You shall be, you shall be, you shall be Forgiven
You shall be, you shall be, you shall be Forgiven

Here I have been standing but the time has come and gone
I tried singing to you, but you turned my words to stone
Here I have been waiting, it seems for quite a while Changed all my reflections
But inside still just a child

But inside still just a child
You shall be, you shall be, you shall be Forgiven
You shall be, you shall be, you shall be Forgiven

These eyes weren't made for crying; This love wasn't made to waste
These arms weren't made for battle, but to share in your embrace
You shall be, you shall be, you shall be
Forgiven

You shall be, you shall be, you shall be Forgiven
