Ruby Red Shoes

Sawyer Brown

Well, it seemed to be just a dream
But how is one to know
There was a cat and a man made of tin
There was a chick and an old scarecrowI got all shook up, I raised my cup
To toast that girl I'd seen
I got my nerve, I threw a curve
And I told her what I meanI said, ooh, ooh, where'd you get them ruby red shoes
They look like they could take a man to a place he could use
We could tap our heels girl and chase away my blues
If I could talk you out of them ruby red shoesIt ain't hard to tell on a carousel
Just where that horse might go
So I jumped ship a shootin' from my hip
Headed down that golden roadWell, the sky got black so I turned back
I'm not one to steal the show
Scarecrow was cool and the cat was too
But me and tin man want to knowI said, ooh, ooh, where'd you get them ruby red shoes
They look like they could take a man to a place he could use
We could tap our heels girl and chase away my blues
If I could talk you out of them ruby red shoesI said, ooh, ooh, where'd you get them ruby red shoes
They look like they could take a man to a place he could use
We could tap our heels girl and chase away my blues
If I could talk you out of them ruby red shoes
