Disregard for all the lies, it's time to believe if you try it so hard, then you'll make it real
We can't stand beside these execrable ways, forget that we're still alive
Should we feel all is lost, time will bind us.

I won't buy whatever your charade means
I've seen it everything's like a dream (x2)

We're now planned to fall behind, break the screen, drop the lines
Concealed dissention will break us apart
We can't stand beside these execrable ways, forget that we're still alive
Should we feel all is lost, time will bind us.

I won't buy whatever your charade means
I've seen it everything's like a dream (x2)

Entender la visi3n que al crecer nos venci3
Regresa al ayer una y otra vez.
We're still alive, falling apart

I won't buy whatever your charade means
I've seen it everything's like a dream. (x2)

I can't believe we were deceived
Building the lie so bold, dreadful and worn
Faintless will stand by the road
Cause we never let it go.
