

A To B

The Futureheads

A to B

A to B

Oh, to move your

It is a shame

It is a pity

When you can't raise the energy to get from A to B

A to B

A to B (I ask a question; you wouldn't comment)

A to B (forget the question, think nothing of it)

A to B, oh, to move your body

I ask a question; you make a comment

Impossible to make a comment

I ask a question; you make a comment

Can you say that again 'cause I didn't catch your comment?

And you say you're gonna reform

And you see you gotta move

Well, it's no excuse, it's no excuse

Because there's no excuse to use

Why do you say you're gonna reform

And you see you gotta move?

Well, it's no excuse, it's no excuse

Because there's no excuse for you to us

A to B (I ask a question; you wouldn't comment)

A to B (forget the question, think nothing of it; forget all my questions)

A to B (I ask a question; you wouldn't comment; forget all my questions)

A to B, oh, to move your body

It is a shame; it's a real pity

When you have to be lazy, when you have to start early

When you can't raise the energy to get from A to B
