

The Chandelier Swing

Braid

watch you sleeping
try hard not to walk away cause i haven't got anything to say when you wake
with nothing in our heads
but an idea of what we should be (what we could be) swing closer catching ourselves from close up
i think we're the same and we've met our match "this is the chandelier swing" so cover yourself with whatever cover your eyes
cause it's not right
you say "it's not what it should be"
but it could be you know i think a lot like you swing away it's not like you had before when you were two years younger (my age)
i wait for you
