I Know What I'm Looking for Now

Tift Merritt

Well, I got here early trying to decide
If there was nothing to hope for or nothing inside
But a mixed up girl with plenty to hide
From the light of dayThen a friend made me laugh, bought me a drink
I walked in this garden, started to think
What little I know is quick as a wink
But Ive know a real long timeI know what Im looking for now
I know what Im looking for now
This world will mix you up, oh and bring you down
I know what Im looking for nowWell, everyones looking, theyre not sure at what Holding onto illusions like its all that they got Putting a mystery where a mystery is not
Can you tell me why?When you can light up a stranger just passing by Start revolutions with the glint in your eye
And sing hallelujah with a breath or a sigh
And still know the way homeI know what Im looking for now
I know what Im looking for now
This world will mix you up, oh and bring you down
I know what Im looking for nowAll of these miles Ive come
All of these dreams Ive chased in my mind
All for something small and simple to findWell, you did what you could, you meant what you said
You look like an angel so hold up your head
A little lost here that aint so bad
That aint the reason to cryI know what Im looking for now
I know what Im looking for now
This world will mix you up, oh and bring you down
This world will mix you up, oh and bring you down
This world will mix you up, oh and bring you down
I know what Im looking for now
