

Maybe This Time

Martine McCutcheon

My mind is weary and I'm losing sight
If loving you is worth the fight
Sometimes I can see it
But I don't want no one else, ooh
A lesser woman would have been long gone
You stuck around and showed me when I was wrong
You said, "Hey, think about it, ain't no doubt about it
That it's always darker just before the dawn"
If you feel the same then don't walk away, yeah
And we'll start again maybe this time
The sun is rising and the air feels clear
It's not quite right but you know we're getting near
Keep on pushing me just might get it right
Home, home, everybody makes mistakes sometimes
Home, home, some people quit too soon
Home, home, nobody else wants to work it out
Home, home, I'm workin' out just to see you do
If you feel the same we don't walk away, yeah
It won't feel the same, same as it used to be
If you feel the same then don't walk away, yeah
And we'll start again maybe this time
