

Low Hymnal

Told Slant

When the dirge is done
And my body is still my body
Well not a legible one Why don't you comfort me?
I know my heart is a window in the dark to you Why don't you comfort me, oh Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah When the loom is gone
I wanna shriek at a pitch so dissonant
All the rafters will fall
Why don't you comfort me?
Why don't you comfort me?
Why don't you comfort me? Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah You can battering ram this life
Felix, you can battering ram this life
You can battering ram this life
Did you know that you can battering ram this life You can battering ram this life
Felix, you can battering ram this life
You can battering ram this life
Did you know that you can battering ram this life
You can battering ram this life
Felix, you can battering ram this life
You can battering ram this life
Did you know that you can battering ram this life
