Heart Attack

Mike Krol

I wont wait for you to have a heart attack or watch you as you break your back i cant decide cause its your chores not mine if i explain everything about me would you kindly let me understand, the time, alright, you see its not hard to take the first step and get off the ledgeeverybody has to feel messed up every once in a while to know they're alive tonight you tell me i wanna know whats it all about wont you tell me all about it?you can walk away and leave this one behind you but tomorrows just another day to be around and let me know if you play tuples then its gonna showif you seek the truth the i will believe you you've gotta wait to work it out aw yeah (uh huh uh huh uh huh) everythings alright and everything alright and everythings all right
