

Love Games

Dan Buben

As I watch your face
I can see my life go by
You mean everything to me
Just can't take no more Throw a smile my way
And the pain I feel inside
Turns to love for you
And I'm yours Do lovers ever need to hide
The things they really feel inside
I simply need you to need me
Can't you see Once I hoped to be
Your lover and your friend
It just can't go on
Your love games
Your love games Do lovers ever need to hide
The things they really feel inside
If you won't show your heart to me
Set me free Now the time has come
To show you how I feel
The love I gave to you
I can't give no more Even now I see
The salt tears in your eyes
But it can't go on
Your love games
Your love games
Your love games Your love games
Your love games
