

Click Clack Away

Diggy Simmons

[Chorus: Bruno Mars] You shot me through the heart staring in your eyes

So I might die a happy man today

Just empty out your barrel girl

It's alright

Click clack away

Click clack away

Click clack away

Go 'head pull it pull it pull it

Yeah yeah

Pull it pull it pull it

Yeah yeah

Pull it pull it

Go 'head make my day

Click clack away

[Verse 1: Diggy Simmons] You got... dumbass seduction

If I was broke i'd give you half of nothing

Or give it all then I give you more

I'm no decorator but the writing's on the wall

Went to summer fall, April, May and June

You shot me through the heart but I don't have a wound

You got a good aim cause I could've sworn I moved

When it comes to relationships I don't have a clue

Love at first sight

I don't know I zoom

You put a hit on me ba da bing ba da boom

If this is pain hurry up and let me suffer

What doesn't kill me should make my love tougher

I'm tough now, whassup now

Fire at me I swear I won't duck down

Wow you had me in awe

You ain't have to shoot girl you had me from your jaw

[Chorus] You shot me through the heart staring in your eyes

So I might die a happy man today

Just empty out your barrel girl

It's alright

[Verse 2: Diggy Simmons] You take away my very breath
No need to ask if i'm ready, yes
I go get my tux and you go get your dress
And we gon' do it big although we just met
I was just being fresh yeah I know i'm a mess
But I like spontaneity, continuity
Let it flow let it flow just you with me
And i'm not pressing charges
Don't want you to ricochet and hit another target
You take me to the edge, right up to the margin
All I see is fireworks I can feel it sparking
Hope you keep me at the center of your bullseye
And you know it's more benefits or full time
You are everything and more
You ain't have to shoot girl you had me from your draw
[Chorus] You shot me through the heart staring in your eyes
So I might die a happy man today
Just empty out your barrel girl
It's alright
