

Secret

Lefty

Said she has a secret in her pocket
I don't think she's ever gonna show nobody else
Bet she has a secret hidden in her past
I don't think she's ever gonna pull it off the shelf
And no one knows why she keeps it to herself
And she wishes she was someone else
Said she hears voices screaming in her head
I don't think their demons but there's really nothing else
Said she hates her mom but I think it should be dad
I don't think she's ever gonna figure it out
Nobody knows her
Said she has a secret in her pocket
I don't think she's ever gonna show nobody else
Said she hears voices screaming in her head
I don't think she's ever gonna let them out
