

Weight of the World

Patrick Watson

I got my feet knocked off the ground
I got my head knocked off my feet
I tried to swallow all of the world
And now Im diving in too deep
And now Im falling towards the sky
I just dont know how am I
But I got the weight of all the world
I better not let go of the reins Oh what am I supposed to do
Am I sposed to echo all of you?
Am I sposed to fall back to the sky?
Or keep on rising for a while? I think Im fallin down
Im back to very ground
I couldnt hold it anymore
Ive had my hours asking for
I think these nice to hold
Or I dont see how could I change my way
I was carrying the weight of all the world
Im gonna get what I deserve
I got my feet knocked off the ground
I got my head knocked off my feet
I tried to spin it all away
I think I got in too deep
I think you know I have to go
I think you know what I deserve
Here comes the weight of all the world
And its coming straight for me.
