

Tortured Souls

The Painkillers

Rampaging through graveyards you can hear screams lost souls trapped in hell and eternal dreams cursed spirits wander here, trapped in a void A giant child plays with you like you are his toy Try hard to reach the light one that don't exist cross of all the Gods that failed your faithful list spit on God, he's the evil, trapping you in time forget religions of all types, keeping you in line
We are the Tortured Souls...
F*** death, never panic, live for today life beyond, past the grave, carry me away in the crypts, bodies lay, souls all shout into the light, rising up, all Gods stay out Never find that guiding light it never did exist crossing off every God that failed your f***** list spit on the God, he's the evil, locks you in your mind Forget religion of all types, they'll only make you blind...
We are the Tortured Souls...
