Skeletons

Gareth Gates

Rumors going 'round in circles
That you've been seeing someone else
You know I love surprises
But baby, not that kind
Whenever there's smoke there's fire
You know I'm not a jealous guy but I need to know there lying
I need to hear you say that
There's nothing going on
Let them dance, break the news
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
Take the chance, tell the truth
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
You gotta choose, let them loose
I'm waiting
So let me know what's going down
Have I been wasting my love?
Is it a last goodbye love?
Come look into my eyes

Let them dance, break the news
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
Take the chance, tell the truth
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
You gotta choose, let them loose
I promise
I'll be thinking twice I promise, yeah
I showed my everything
My heart is in your hands, heart is in your hands
Let them dance, break the news
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
Take the chance, tell the truth
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
Let them dance, break the news
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
Take the chance, tell the truth
Let the skeletons in your closet loose
You gotta choose
You gotta choose, let them loose
