Only God's In This

Virtue

I called up Karima, Heather and told 'em that Lately, I've been feelin' that
We need a little somethin' we can grove to
You know somethin' with some bump that don't offend you'Cause I hear what it is that they're playin'
But I don't really like what they're sayin'
But I think we can give 'em what they need
Wanna take a chance join meWe wanna give you somethin' to make ya dance
Maybe make you wanna clap your hands
Make you wanna catch a circumstance
But first you gotta understandThis ain't 'bout no relationships
Not the kinda party that be poppin' Cris
All that bling will just leave it where it is
Only God's in thisNow we gon' take you to another place
Where it's all good if you're stayin' late
But if you wanna get inside
You gotta give some praiseGotcha guaranteed you never felt this way
Got you lookin' forward to every Saturday
Still spreadin' the word on Thursday
Don't it make you wanna go onWe wanna give you somethin' to make ya dance
Maybe make you wanna clap your hands
Make you wanna catch a circumstance
But first you gotta understandThis ain't 'bout no relationship
Not the kinda party that be poppin' Cris
All that bling will just leave it where it is
Only God's in thisSaid it feels good to my soul
Just like a fire that won't go cold
Oh and it'll give joy unspeakable
Makes life more meaningful
If you're curious 'bout what I say
Then just walk this wayWe wanna give you somethin' to make ya dance
Maybe make you wanna clap your hands
Make you wanna catch a circumstance
But first you gotta understandThis ain't 'bout no relationship
Not the kinda party that be poppin' Cris
All that bling will just leave it where it is
Only God's in thisWe wanna give you somethin' to make ya dance
Maybe make you wanna clap your hands
Make you wanna catch a circumstance
But first you gotta understandThis ain't 'bout no relationship

Not the kinda party that be poppin' Cris
All that bling will just leave it where it is
Only God's in this
