I've Found Someone

GFYA

It's not everyday
That you can find something in your life
That is worth all the money in this world
Happiness
And for the first time in my life
I find it hard for me to express myself by the way I feel
This thing makes me wanna scream
Makes me wanna holler, makes me wanna shout
It makes me wanna sing lyrics of love
And joy and happiness and [Incomprehensible]
Never thought I'd find someone
Who'd blow my mind, yeah, like you do
And never thought I'd see the day
That it could be so true, yeah
Yes, I found someone, yeah
Someone that I can give my love to
And do all the things I've longed to do
Girl, I've found out it's you, it's true
It's true, it's you
Never have I known the kinda love you've shown in my life
And don't believe myself you're better than I've ever felt
Yes, I know why
It's all because I, I've, I've found someone, yeah, yeah, yeah
Someone that I can reach out and touch
Your smiling face, it means so much
Girl, you'll be the one I need when things go wrong
I'm gonna need your faith to keep me strong
Ohh, I don't care, I don't care, I don't care what you do
It's gonna take the rest of my life, take a chance on you
