Minion

November17

War, war for power
Shut upYou stared at the broken mirror
Your heart's collecting dust
Secure that the sins are forgiven
Forgotten but still left with usThe crime is that you've failed in recognizing
The heart you broke, the life you stole
Bow down before your master
Well, get inside with this shit inside as IBow down, you're my disaster
You can lick it redPain is just the path of life you've chosen
It's nothing more than a simple slap away
Your heart, your fist, your skull
Is breaking all this, taking all thisCut off your nose to spite the face
My life of piss you borrow
Do I follow the god who trained the king?
Or create my own god tomorrow?Why can't you see that you're unfaithful? Faithful
Scars and bruises hide the truth in fables, fablesIt's time, my heart is broken down
Shine, my heart is broken, broken
You deliver itWhy can't you see that you're unfaithful? Faithful
Scars and bruises hide the truth in fables, fables
Why can't you see that you're unfaithful? Faithful
Scars and bruises hide the truth in fables, fablesIt's you, no more tomorrow
It's you, no more tomorrow
Fuck your minion
Push, push, push, pushing me away
