

End of Words

Camouflage

the colours fade away,
save us from falling apart.
the scenes of every day,
a glimpse of a world bizarre.the reason i'm calm,
in silence we walk alone
an endless delay.
walk away,
turn back and see,
it gets closer to me...
i'm coming closer,
so much closer it hurts.
i'm getting closer,
to the end of my words.the pleasure fades away,
a greyscales enfolding in any kind.
we suffer every day,
the pictures and lies,
burning in our mind.the reason i'm calm,
in silence we walk alone
an endless delay.
walk away,
turn back and see,
it gets closer to me...
i'm coming closer,
so much closer it hurts.
i'm getting closer,
to the end of my words.
