Stab Yr Heart

Nicky Wire

Never said I loved you
Just that I would like too
It got so complicated
The debt has been update

Always being someone
Never being yourself
Fed you to the dragons
Nothing left to be said

When your up you gotta come back down
Feel the force you better wear your crown
Looking closer it will make you feel found

The friendship we have gathered
So quickly torn and shattered
Too fragile to be spoken
A heart dying and broken

Never stop believing
The truth can be deceiving
Breaking through your demons
Controlling all your feelings

When you're up you gotta come back down
Feel the force you better wear your crown
Look a little closer it will help you too feel found
