

Spy (feat. Wyclef Jean)

Shakira

Slow motion, blinds are see through
Let your mind go, imagine that I kiss you
Turn off the lights and open up your eyes now
You can take a glimpse into my soul for tonight Do you got the heat off girl? Yes, I do
Can you turn up the temperature? You bet I could Colombian with a swagger, yes, I am Whatever it takes to make this thing work we gonna
Whatever it takes to make this thing work we gonna There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
You like to keep an eye on me
I know you like to keep an eye on me There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
Won't you like to keep an eye on me?
I know you like to keep an eye on me
Keep an eye on me, but if you want it got to let it be I know you dream about me and it turns me on to think about it
This is the finest game, it ain't even got a name
I just wanna see how far it takes us tonight Do you got the music on girl? Yes, I do
Can you get a little closer? You bet I could
Colombian with a swagger, yes, I am Whatever it takes to make this thing work we gonna
Whatever it takes to make this thing work we gonna
Whatever it takes to make this thing work we gonna There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
You like to keep an eye on me
I know you like to keep an eye on me There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
Won't you like to keep an eye on me?
I know you like to keep an eye on me
Keep an eye on me, but if you want it got to let it be When the dog's away that's when the cat's play
You'll be my girl, I'll be the spy
Like the James Bond flick girl I'm ready to ride When the cat's away that's when the mouse play
You'll be my girl, I'll be the spy
Like the James Bond flick girl I'm ready to die, die, die There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
You like to keep an eye on me
I know you like to keep an eye on me There's a spy by my window, I know it's you
Won't you like to keep an eye on me?
I know you like to keep an eye on me
Keep an eye on me, but if you want it got to let it be Lipstick's on, stockings up
Skirt's short, heels are high
Take your time, buckle up Close your eyes and enjoy the ride
Close your eyes and enjoy the ride
Close your eyes
Close your eyes and enjoy the ride
