

I Think I'll Quit

Saves the Day

I think you're a really neat person and I think I want to spend some more times with you cause you aren't boring and your phone skills are really rad you call me up again I think I really like you you're in my thoughts all the time I remember what you look like I can picture us walking hand in hand and side by side then I look into your grey-blue eyes I like you an awful lot
