Singular

Dogwood

Oh my, my your union was just like the first time
This could be the worst time to be me
Spare me your thoughts, your position's deceiving
I wish you would lead me to my ownI tried to be strong, I want to carry on
But people are happy just being sadCall me afraid, it isn't so easy
It's always been easy to be weak
Over my head like the water that chokes me
You're my only hope that's what I have
You're my only hope that's why I have to take youHand you my heart, give you my hand before I fall
Take me away from my own mistrust
