Floorkiller

Icon of Coil

Someone pretends to hold it back
Even they don't know that they gave their best
When they gave up other beliefs
When they're on the topEven though they got more than much to give Bit by snakes but I won't give it upCome down, confront all my visions
Come downStill I'm hunting the demonsI used to love to see the reflections
Of my shadows, now it seems like a threat
We need less as we swallow each otherStill I'm hunting the demonsCome down, confront all my visions
Come downCan't wait for the signs to stop flashing in my head
Can't wait for the sounds to hold me back
How it felt through that time, I can't explain
But I hope you try to see seduce me, hold and caress meCome down, confront all my visions
Come down
