Airplane

The Districts

Tonight
I considered going out with my friends
Even dialed a cabBut I wasn't sure if my time should be spent
I wasn't going to decide
And walls, that I'm desperate to transcend
But they're tall and broad, they got a strong foundationI never said that this was a good thing
I never said that this wasTake your time, that's enough for me
If your plane keeps flying while its crossing the scene
I'm alone, but won't be lonely
Unless its your plane crashing on morning TV
Engines fail
Wane, wane and lack
And are they making amends, I'm just lying on my backAnd aren't you afraid that something will kill you?
Or are you afraid of nothing?The faucet is trickling
Soft knees, shake nervously
Tapping out the segments
Stand straight in front of me
A vacuum sealing up
The beetles in wet cementTake your time, that's enough for me
If your plane keeps flying while its crossing the scene
I'm alone, but won't be lonely
Unless its your plane crashing on morning TV
Engines fail
Engines fail sometimes, my dear
Engines fail sometimes
Engines fail sometimes, my dear
Engines fail sometimes
Engines fail
