

Apart (Bittruf, Pt. 1)

Lacrimosa

So - you - said - that I - shall - try - to go on I've seen your eyes
They shined like stars to me
And then I saw your soul
An empty hall Kissing you was like
Kissing the past
I felt like giving in I felt like
Being a part of something
Something I was always trying to achieve
I felt like
Being a part of something
Something that lasts I've seen your ways
They sometimes took me
By surprise
And then I saw your aim
A lurid lunatic Touching you was like Touching a flame
I felt like giving in I felt like
Being a part of something
Something I was always
trying to achieve
I felt like
Being a part of something
Something that lasts And I need love
Like I never needed love before ...
