

Melancholy Christmas

Amy Grant

I post another picture from the quiet of my room
And wonder who'll like it and wonder what to do
With the rest of tonight and tomorrow night too
Christmas is coming soon Maybe I'll call up some friends just to see if they're home
I don't want to feel lonely
But I'm here alone
And the snow falls down
Coming down Merry Christmas
You could come over
It's not too late
Don't worry 'bout presents
I've save you a place Merry Christmas
Light a few candles
And sing Christmas songs
Everybody needs a place to belong
At Christmas, it's Christmas
