Goodnight Sweetheart

Jill Barber

Goodnight sweetheart
I'm gonna sleep
Sleep in your arms
Until morning creeps'Cause tonight, sweetheart
The last time I'll hear
You whisper softly
Goodnight in my earAnd by the time I wake
You'll be long gone on your way
And I won't have to say
Anything'Cause one your love, sweetheart
Slipped out like a sigh
But lately you think twice
Why you bother to tryI think we both know
That you've made up your mind
So just say the words
Please don't try to be kindAnd now my eyes are closed and tired
Our love is out of my sight
And you'll stay with me all through the nightAnd if I should see you
When I'm old and I'm gray
You've long since forgotten
Even my nameI may recall a dream
From a time long before
Where you were my sweetheart
But now nevermore
