Got This Far

Alana Davis

I don't think I wanted to take your time
I don't think it ever crossed my mind
That you would be more to me than just a lover
'Cause I, I was doin' fine on my own
I wasn't really lonely, just alone
But at least I knew where I was and what I wantedBut now, I don't know how you got me, babe
So open wide and I don't know how to tell you, babe
The way it feels inside, I know I have a feeling
That you, you could hold me longer, we get stronger every dayAnd I don't know what you've done to me
I'm so turned around I can barely see
The way that I'm supposed to be
I'm so wrapped up in what I think you think of meI don't know how you got this far
How am I supposed to live a life?
Burdened by the thought of you, my love
How will I ever be alright?Every time I look into your eyes
I can feel the pressure start to rise
Pulling me into you and what you'll show me
Well I, I believe that love can conquer all
But is it really love that makes you fall
Or just the fantasy of understandingWell I, I don't know how you're gonna save
The rest of my heart, I don't know how I'd stop you, baby
Or how I'd even start, I know I have a feeling
That you are something to discover, the lover that you areAnd I don't know how you got through I'm not the kind of girl you're supposed to get to
I've been hurt before, I don't want it anymore
I'm safer in my solitudeI don't know how you got this far
How am I supposed to live a life?
Burdened by the thought of you, my love
How will I ever be alright?I don't know how you got through
But just like a child I run to you
And I don't know what else to say
Nobody soothes me the way that you doI don't know how you got this far
How am I supposed to live a life?
Burdened by the thought of you, my love
How will I ever be alright?I don't know how you got this far
How am I supposed to live a life?
I don't know how you got this, this far
