

Oh Marcello

Regina Spektor

Oh, Marcello
How I wonder
La Madonna she tell the truth, no?
She's been saying I'll have a baby
When he grow up he become a killer I'm just a soul whose intentions are good
Oh lord please don't let me be misunderstood
Understood Oh, Marcello
Never thought I'd really love you but I do so
My headwaiter's head on your platter
Just say the word and
I'll make you kiss my gutters I'm just a soul whose intentions are good
Oh lord please don't let me be misunderstood
Understood
Understood I'm just a soul whose intentions are good
Oh lord please don't let me be misunderstood
Understood
Understood Oh, Marcello
How I wonder
La Madonna when she speak she tell the truth, no?
She's been saying I'll have a baby
When he grow up he'll become a killer and kill everybody I'm just a soul whose intentions are good
Oh lord please don't let me be misunderstood
Understood
Understood Oh, Marcello!
Oh, Marcello!
