

Everything Everyway

Sunk Loto

I said here I lay,
With a photograph of you and I because today I'm inspired, to write a song and celebrate our loveI said, So please don't change, because you're perfect to me I said, So please don't change, just for the momentI said, don't change a thing, because you're beautiful in everyway I said, don't change a thing, if you're beautiful in everywayand who you are, is who you are and you dont have to be like someone else

no magazine or any scene, is gonna change the person that I amYeahI said so please don't change because you're perfect to me I said so please don't change just for the momentI said don't change a thing because you're beautiful in everyway

I said don't change a thing if you're beautiful in everywayeveryway, everyway, everyway
