Just a Little Bit

Steve Miller Band

Just a little
Just a little bit
Just a little
Just a little bitBabe, I don't want it all
(Just a little)
I just want a little bitI don't want it all
(Just a little bit)
I just want a little bitJust a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit of your loveTurn your lamp down low
(Just a little)
Baby, I love you soTurn your lamp down low
(Just a little bit)
Baby, I love you soJust a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit of your love
(Just a little)Could be a spoonful of coffee
Could be a spoonful of gold
Just a little spoonful of your precious love satisfies my soulI don't want it all
(Just a little, just a little bit)
I just want a little bitI don't want it all
(Just a little, just a little bit)
I just want a little bitJust a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bit, eeny-weeny bit of your loveBabe, I don't want it allJust a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bitJust a little bit
Just a little
Just a little bitYou know it could be a spoonful of coffee
Could be a spoonful of gold
Just a little spoonful of your precious love satisfies my soulBabe, I don't want it all
(Just a little)
I just want a little bit
(Just a little bit)I don't want it all
(Just a little bit)
I just want a little bit
(A little bit)Just a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bit, just an eeny-weeny bit
Just a little teeny bit, eeny-weeny bit of your love
Yeah, babyJust a little bit
Just a little bit
Just a little bit

Just a little bit
