Indivisible

Plankeye

Avenues and dirty arches
You run down the street and I will follow
Try, try sliding through the network
Of a crowded paradiseMy tears are indivisible
Underneath overexposure
Like a shell shocked distant past ride ride sifting through the remains
Surfing on a concrete tideMy tears are indivisible
Animals in pretty cages
You have watched them wear their ugliest faces
Cry, cry saline droplets
Splashing in the boat that saved your lifeMy tears are indivisible
When we fall we're always sorry
But it makes us glad to know it's only temporary
