Of a Lesser God

Systematic

Obscene, unbecoming
And always look downUnclean, no returning
But it's so clear and so sound
But this saves me from me
Between my shortcomings
A simple way out
It seems nothing's workingWaste away inside
Pulling with this tide
It suits you fine
Of a lesser GodSlip into subhuman
And phasing you out
You're in-between the next lifePulling with this tide
Pristine no resurgence
Waste away inside
Of a lesser God
It suits you fineI think it's safe to say
Can't make it go away
