In My Dreams

Blutengel

I feel the coldness in my heart
I wish that you could be with me
I wish you could heal my deepest pain
And take me away from all my fears
But I'm trapped in my world of doubts
I'm not free to follow you
I know you would give everything you got
And you would handle me with careI will never forget the moment when you looked into my eyes
When I touched your skin for the first time, I felt heaven in my hands
So I tried to close my eyes
And I'm dreaming me away
In my dreams you hold me tight
In my dreams you're always here
I never want to wake up again
Don't want to face reality
Once so far away from me
But you will always be in my dreamsIn my dreams
In my dreams
