I Remember You

Steve Earle

When I'm walkin' these streets and I'm countin' my steps
And I'm draggin' my feet 'cause I ain't ready yet
To start all over again
'Cause every time that I do I remember youWell, you broke my heart and it healed alright
Now we're far apart and I don't lie awake at night
But every once in a while
Right out of the blue I remember youYou never write and I never call
And I don't miss you tonight
I'm just curious, that's allDo you still have dreams? Did they all come true?
Does it ever seem like you'll never make it true?
Do you ever miss me?
The way that I do when I remember you
