

Everything

Mortal Love

Everything I tried to be
(My heart in silence weeps)
Let the poison into me
(My heart in silence weeps)
All the beauty my sins cost
(My heart in silence weeps)
Everything that I have lost

Everything I tried to do
(My heart in silence weeps)
Whispered me away from you
(My heart in silence weeps)
If you and I cannot be one
Then forever will be gone

Now that I have lost everything

My heart in silence weeps

You are present in my sleep
You haunt me when I'm awake
My thoughts you always seem to keep
Is it too late?
