

Take Me Down

Venturia

I walk into a word of silence
Nowhere left to hide
Here I lie to myself everytime
The faith in me has died
Once again, light the fire that used to be our own
All this time, I've been let down by you
I know you're still there

Take me down
And wake me up inside
Can you heal me? Can't you see?

Let me fall into this broken dream
Deeper and deeper
Hear the wind, it whispers:
"Find yourself...and you will fly again"
Oh but how can this ghost disappear
As you fade away?

Take me down
And wake me up inside
Can you heal me? Can you see?
Take me down
I will follow and raise our sun again
Can you light my way?

Take me down
And wake me up inside
Can you heal me? Can you see?
Take me down
I will follow and raise our sun again
Can you light my way?
