Sun's Gonna Rise

Shannon Curfman

You say I'm the one to set you free
But still you don't open up your door
You say my love is the remedy
Can't you admit that it's secure
Why can't you say you're afraid
But so am I, but it's all right
It's all rightStay with me, lay with me
Lean on me, call on me
Run with me, dream with me
Pray with me, fall on me
Whenever you need me
I'll be by your side
As sure as the sun's gonna riseWe started something
It's the real thing
We got what everyone's waiting for
They are so quick to judge what we can be
But our flame is burning from the core
Our fire is never gone fade
So just close your eyes
Cause it's all right
It's all rightStay with me, lay with me
Lean on me, call on me
Run with me, dream with me
Pray with me, fall on me
Whenever you need me
I'll be by your side
As sure as the sun's gonna rise
As sure as the sun's gonna riseStay with me, lay with me
Lean on me, call on me
Run with me, dream with me
Pray with me, fall on me
Whenever you need me
I'll be by your side
As sure as the sun's gonna rise
(2X)As sure as the sun's gonna rise (2x)
