

Another Runaway

Ladyhawke

I never said I was a one time woman
I never wrote it, I never said it
I should have known you'd leave me out here hanging on
I should have seen it, I didn't get it Oh, oh, oh, I don't believe it
Oh, oh, oh, you never mean it It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
To call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late
I'm just another runaway It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
to call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late, I'm just a
Another runaway, another runaway You always said I was your part time woman
I don't believe it, I didn't see it
You always acting like a part time wanna be
I shoulda seen it, I didn't get it Oh, oh, oh, I don't believe it
Oh, oh, oh, you never mean it It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
To call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late
I'm just another runaway It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
to call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late, I'm just a
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway Oh, oh, oh, I don't believe it
Oh, oh, oh, you never mean it It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
To call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late
I'm just another runaway It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
To call back yesterday
It's too late, it's too late I'm just a
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway
