

My Surrender

Steven Curtis Chapman

Does it all sound the same?
Are my words getting through?
I've been trying so hard
That I'm about to break So here I am with all I have And I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, I surrender
Yeah, I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, this is my surrender
Take it all And what song can I sing
But the song that You give?
I have nothing to bring
That did not come from Your hands So here I am with all I have And I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, I surrender
Yeah, I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, this is my surrender All my prayers and all my dreams
I'm giving it all to You
I lay it all down at Your feet, I'm Yours
So what song can I sing but this song? I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, I surrender
I'm giving it all back to You
All back to You, this is my surrender
Take it all, take it all, Lord, take it all, take it all
