Jenny

I'm from Barcelona

Jenny living in the sea
She's gonna swim away from all her misery
Yesterday she said to me
"The underwater train is heading for Paris"I will take you far away
I'll put you in a little bowl upon a tray
I know this is what you dream
We're going up the Eiffel Tower, you and meAnd I'll take you far away
I'll put you in a bowl upon a tray
And this is what you dream
We're going up the Eiffel Tower, you and meI'll take you far away
I'll put you in a bowl upon a tray
This is what you dream
We're going up the Eiffel Tower, you and meEiffel Tower, you and me
Eiffel Tower, you and me
Eiffel Tower, you and me
