Stand With Me

Caitlyn Smith

The truth isn't always what you want to hear
And neither is it what you want to tell
When youâ€™ve had a hard road, a dark road
I shouldâ€™ve been careful
And love isnâ€™t always what you think it is
And you could be swept away without even knowing it
And it could be the wrong thing
Such a wrong thing if you arenâ€™t careful
So wonâ€™t you stand with me
And give me reassurance for tonight
Oh, wonâ€™t you stand with me
And tell me Iâ€™m a fool if I donâ€™t fight
Stand with me, â€˜til everythingâ€™s alright
And patience isnâ€™t always what you need
When you know you werenâ€™t doing the right thing
Redemption is a humbling reward
And Iâ€™m humbled to the floor, when Iâ€™m not careful
So wonâ€™t you stand with me
And give me reassurance for tonight
Oh, wonâ€™t you stand with me
And tell me Iâ€™m a fool if I donâ€™t fight
Stand with me, â€˜til everythingâ€™s alright
And I am but flesh and bone
And itâ€™s a familiar haunt to dwell on, the mistakes Iâ€™ve made
And there is a place I go
A place that will let me know, you are right here with me
The truth isnâ€™t always what you want to hear
And neither is it what you want to tell
So wonâ€™t you stand with me
And give me reassurance for tonight
So wonâ€™t you stand with me
And tell me Iâ€™m a fool if I donâ€™t fight
Tell me Iâ€™m a fool if I donâ€™t fight
Stand with me, â€˜til everythingâ€™s alright
