

Freelunch In the Jungle

Bel Canto

I know I'm alive
And I do love lovely dos, do you?
Oh yeah, I guess you do
I love being alive
And I hope that love will see me through in all the things I do
I like the spice in me, I like the spice in you
I've seen it twice in me and I've seen it twice in you
I know I'm alive
And till now my dreams have all come true
Except the things I blew
I know I'm alive I know I am
'Cause if it was not, I would be damned
And, so I guess, would you
I like the spice in me, I like the spice in you
So throw a dice for me and I'll throw a dice for you
Oh, we all cling on tight to pine-tree tops
Oh, we are the lucky stars, the lucky stars
Oh, we all cling on tight to pine-tree tops
Oh, we're just a little bit too excited Understand?
I know I'm alive 'cause I do love lovely dos, do you?
Oh yeah, I know you do
Yo!
I'm in love with life, I know I am and I'll try to keep it spick and span to let love shine through
I like the spice in me, I like the spice in you
It broke the ice in me and it'll break the ice in you
Oh, there's a crocodile beneath the mud
Oh, it wants a little snack, a little snack
Oh, there's a crocodile beneath the mud
Oh, it is a little bit too excited
Oh, when you cling on tight to pine-tree tops
Oh, I'd say; shake and bend, shake and bend
Oh, when you cling on tight to pine-tree tops
Oh, you'll feel a little bit too excited
