All the Time

Gumball

There was something the other night
You didn't know, but it was in your eyes
Another hour passes on
And I still I want you more

Because when you're gone
I feel so alone
But when you're here
that feeling's gone
You know I care, so don't you cry
Loving you all the time

Will you lay down to sleep at night
And I'll hold you waiting for a while
You will whisper in my ear
Go to sleep now, your dreams are here

Because when you're gone
I feel so alone
But when you're here
that feeling's gone
You know I care, so don't you cry
Loving you all the time
