

Easier Than This

Ben Danaher

[Verse 1]

I'm scared 'cause I never ever been this far
Tried everything to protect my heart
And I don't know what to say to you
I'll probably never ever get it figured out
'cause I'm fighting forty-two different kinds of doubt
I guess I thought love might be easier than this

[Chorus]

Easier than holding you tight, telling you secrets on a Tuesday night
Knowing Wednesday your arms just might have someone else wrapped in 'em
Easier than watching my phone knowing damn well that my covers been blown
Wonderin' if you still think I exist
Yeah, I guess I thought love was easier than this

[Verse 2]

I'd love to tell you where I'm coming from
But I can see the man with the starting gun
When those words leave my mouth you'll be on the run
It's messed up there's just things I don't wanna miss
Like driving home with the taste of your lipstick
I guess I thought love might be easier than this

[Chorus]

Easier than holding you tight, telling you secrets on a Tuesday night
Knowing Wednesday your arms just might have someone else wrapped in 'em
Easier than watching my phone knowing damn well that my covers been blown
Wonderin' if you still think I exist
Yeah, I guess I thought love was easier than this

[Bridge]

If I'm wrorg would you tell me exactly what I missed
'cuz the only thing running through my head

Is: Love has gotta be...

[Chorus]

Easier than holding you tight, telling you secrets on a Tuesday night
Knowing Wednesday your arms just might have someone else wrapped in 'em
Easier than watching my phone knowing damn well that my covers been blown
Wonderin' if you still think I exist
Yeah, I guess I thought love was easier than this
