

Power Of Positive Drinkin'

Chris Janson

Work sucks, truck died, hot as hell outside, my A/C just broke
The woman I love packed half of my stuff and she took off down road Where she went, I don't know
But she's never comin' back
My life feels like a joke
But it hurts too much to laugh So I go
To that little place where the good times always roll
In the glow of the neon light where I know
There's a new song I'll be singin'
Before I leave, yeah, I believe in the power of positive drinkin' Beer one tastes just like a beer
Beer two, a little bit better than one
Beer three, beer four
Yeah, that was pretty damn good so hand me one more
Beer five and I'm comin' alive
Beer six, man that went down quick
Seven, eight, nine, I'm feelin' fine
And by number ten life's good again, hey
Yeah, that's the power of positive drinkin' Oh, where she went, I don't know
But she's never comin' back
My life feels like a joke
But it hurts too much to laugh So I go
To that little place where the good times always roll
In the glow of the neon light where I know
There's a new song I'll be singin'
Before I leave, yeah, I believe
In the power of positive drinkin' Beer one tastes just like a beer
Beer two a little bit better than one
Beer three, beer four
Yeah, that was pretty damn good so hand me one more
Beer five and I'm comin' alive
Beer six, man that went down quick
Seven, eight, nine, I'm feelin' fine
And by number ten life's good again, hey
That's the power of positive drinkin' Yeah, so I go
To that little place where the good times always roll
In the glow of the neon light where I know
There's a new song I'll be singin'
Before I leave, yeah, I believe
In the power of positive drinkin' That's the power of positive drinkin'
