When Youâ€™re Small

Circulatory System

When you're small, when you're so empty
There's nothing left to hide
When you're small, when you're so empty
Just an open sky, skyThe light is shining down on you
The light is shining down on youWhen you're small, when you're so empty
There's nothing there to hide
When you're small, when you're so empty
Just an open sky, skyThe light is shining down on you
The light is shining down on you
When you're small, when you're so happy
Happy happy
When you're small, when you're so happy
