Everything You Want

Boyce Avenue

The shame is in the greed, no, no The distance of being just out of reach Is taking its effect on me Why do I feel the needs of guilty tendencies Eating away at who I used to want to be? Caught up in the trapping zone It's almost impossible to keep up Camouflage, Bandaids for my insecurities Swimming with sharks, I've become a killer What about your heart? I want the love of my life as of yesterday Where does it stop? The more you get, the more you want Everything you want, you just can't have it There's always something else around the corner The appetite is never fully satisfied Even before you get you're on to the next Consuming everything in sight Living in a fantasy world, trying to digest the fact That having everything can make you happy Work so hard, fill the void of insecurity Self absorbed, I've become the killer Restless heart, what's left and who needs it anyway? Haunted by thoughts of The more you get, the more you want Everything you want, you just can't have it (You just can't, just can't have it all) Everything you want, you just can't have it (You just can't, just can't have it all) Everything you want, you just can't have it (Whoa) Everything you want, you just can't have it Whoa, no, no, no, no, no, no, no Slow down and take a look around you

The simple pleasures will astound you The weight of everything move around you Release the burden that you're bound to

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it

Want the money, money

Everything you want, you just can't have it (You just can't, just can't have it all)

Everything you want, you just can't have it (You just can't, just can't have it all)

Everything you want, you just can't have it (No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no)

Everything you want, you just can't have it

Everything you want, you just can't have it

(Oh, you just can't, just can't have it all)

Everything you want, you just can't have it (Oh no, ooh oh)

Everything you want, you just can't have it (No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no)

Everything you want, you just can't have it

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?

Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it? Want the money, money
