Sonic Syndicate

Sands of time stream through my fingers
Chasing lost days of a dead dream
And I don't care if we lose it all tonight
'Cause I'm not sure anymore if it ever happened
It feels so unreal Don't close your eyes, what if all disappears
Am I better off all alone?
The truth is more than your brain can handle
I won't hate you anymore First time I saw my father's tears
I knew there was still hope for me
Now share your brain so I can upload some hate
If you saw me now would you pray for me?
Still I'll keep doing the same mistakes Why does it feel like God spent more time on me?
I burned all the bridges
But the moment I met you they were all rebuilt again
